

Wyndham Cup Teams – EAST

Youngin Chun – 2012 US Kids World Championship Winner. 2010 US Kids World Championship Winner. She is only the second player, ever to play for both teams in the Wyndham Cup.

Emily Hawkins – CGA Girls' Player of the Year. 2016 Tournaments Won: CGA N.C. Junior Girls' Championship, CGA Carolinas Junior Girls' Championship, AJGA Girls Championship at Furman University.

Rachel Heck – Not finished outside of the top seven in a tournament since June of 2016.

Aubree Jones – Won the Class AAA state title as a freshman and a sophomore last fall.

Gina Kim – Won a state championship and in mid-June rallied from a four-shot deficit over her final nine holes to capture the prestigious Rolex Girls Junior Championship. Won the 2016 Rolex Girls Junior Invitational secured her spot on the United States Team with her top finish on the Junior Ryder Cup Points List.

Emilia Migliaccio – Junior Ryder Cup team for 2018.

Alexa Pano – Won her first world championship at 6 years old. Features in “The Short Game,” a 2013 film on NetFlix.

Erica Sheperd – The 15-year-old lefty qualified to compete with the nation's best – pros and amateurs alike – in the upcoming women's U.S. Open after winning last month's qualifier near Chicago.

Garret Barber – Won two national tournaments, including the 2014 Junior All-Star at Hot Springs Village. The LSU verbal commit has finished in the top 10 in 13 tournaments during his five-year AJGA career.

Canon Claycomb – He is one of two boys selected to represent the United States in the 2015 Evian Championship Juniors Cup, to be held September 15-16. Among the alumni of this prestigious event: 2015 Masters champion Jordan Spieth..

Eugene Hong – No. 3 player in the Golfweek rankings; Champion of the 2016 Haas Family Invitational; Semi-finalist in both the 2015 and 2016 U.S. Junior Amateur; and finished T-6 at the 2016 Junior PGA Championship. Junior Ryder Cup Team.

Won Jun Lee – Recorded four top-10 finishes in 2015, including T10 at the Rolex Tournament of Champions and second at the FJ Invitational. Lee also advanced to the semifinals at the U.S. Junior Amateur Championship.

John Pak – Season-best runner-up finish at the Rolex Tournament of Champions and a semifinal appearance at the U.S. Junior Amateur Championship.

Bryan Wiyang Teoh – Recorded top-five finishes in all of his six AJGA events. His year was highlighted by wins at the Core Golf Academy Junior All-Star and the AJGA Junior at Centennial, and capped off his year with a T5 finish in his first AJGA Invitational.

Khavish Varadan – Won the Junior PLAYERS Championship presented by TaylorMade-adidas Golf.

Karl Vilips – Winner of 4 World Junior Championships at ages 7, 8, 10 & 12. Won the IMG Academy Junior World Championships four times.

Wocheng (Aden) Ye – Becomes youngest golfer to qualify for European Tour event by making Volvo China Open aged 12.