

Mayacama to host Men's PAC-12 Golf Championships

April 25 – 28, 2021

We are excited about being selected as the venue for the 2021 Men's Pac-12 Championship, hosted by the University of California Golden Bears!

The Pac-12 Championship will be the strongest field ever to compete at Mayacama Club, and will feature many of today's best collegiate players and tomorrow's stars on the PGA Tour. Spring conditions are usually when the Golf Course plays its most difficult with firm and fast greens and long native rough. And we are anxious to see the type of challenge our course will present to these great players.

Details are continually developing within the PAC-12 Conference in hopes of being able to welcome a limited number of spectators to the Championship, with priority credentials going to our Mayacama Members. Look for more communication from the Club as these details are finalized. But rest assured, there are lots of great opportunities to be a part of the action by volunteering as a walking scorer, marshal, spotter and more. If you are interested in being involved in the Championship, please contact the Golf Shop at 707-569-2915.

Just some of today's PGA Tour players who have played in the PAC-12 Championships in recent years include last week's PGA Tour Winner at Riviera, Max Homa (Cal); the Number 2 player in the World Golf Rankings, John Rahm (Arizona State); The 2020 PGA Champion Colin Morikawa (Cal); Patrick Cantlay (UCLA) who is ranked Number 7 in the World Golf Rankings, and of course Tiger and Phil!

The Men's PAC-12 Championships joins the USGA Men's State Team Championship and the AJGA's Wyndham Cup as the premiere events that Mayacama has hosted in our short history. We want to thank our Members for supporting these Championships as we give back to the game that has brought us so much enjoyment for the past twenty years. We're proud of our place in the game and appreciate your support ... it's what good clubs do!

Here is the current Championship Schedule along with some other facts about the PAC-12 Championship. Save the dates and look for more information on the 2021 Men's PAC-12 Championship at Mayacama Golf Club!
