Accommodations & meals:

Two (2) nights in manor singles in two bedroom Manor Lodges at Adare Manor. Adare Manor is the former estate of Lord & Lady Dunraven, the gentry who controlled part of Ireland until the early part of the 20th century. The elegant hotel is surrounded by more than 800 acres of grounds that include a Robert Trent Jones golf course. In 2002, Conde Nast named Adare as the #1 European resort.

Three (3) nights in lodge single rooms at The Lodge at Hogs Head. Set on the shores of the beautiful and serene Lough Currane in Waterville, The Lodge at Hogs Head is warm, welcoming and steeped in the tradition of its Kerry, Ireland past. The Lodge has woven together luxurious comfort, old world charm and elegant interiors, which is what makes this 48 bedroom Lodge breathtaking and unique.

Three (3) nights in superior single rooms at the Ballygarry House. The Ballygarry House embodies the highest of service values and standards, whilst its design and character embody the charm of a country house.

Two (2) nights in single rooms at the Vaughan Lodge, a stylish upscale family run property designed to international 4 star specifications. Each of the 20 bedrooms and 2 suites are contemporary in style, offering the spaciousness and comfort of a hotel with the intimacy and atmosphere of a country lodge.

- Full breakfast each morning at your hotel.

Golf Courses:

- Green fees for ten (10) rounds of golf as follows:

Adare Manor (Two Rounds). Adare is a wonderful Robert Trent Jones parkland design with a collection of the most majestic trees seen anywhere and a spectacular finish hole. In recent years the course has hosted the AIB Irish Seniors tournament.

Waterville Golf Links (Two Rounds). Developed by an Irish-born American, and seated on a narrow peninsula that is surrounded by the Atlantic on three sides, the Waterville Golf Links has quickly earned a loyal group of devotees. The setting is inspiring and the golf is equally so, thanks in part to a number of enhancements in recent years by Tom Fazio. Among the many fans of Waterville was Payne Stewart, an adopted son and honorary club captain, whose statue stands near the 18th green. Another was Sam Snead, who once called the links at Waterville “One of the wonders of the golfing world.”

Hogs Head Golf Club (Two Rounds). Over the last few years, on a peninsula overlooking the sleepy town of Waterville, the newest seaside course in Ireland has quietly taken shape. Located just a strong 3-iron from the historic Waterville Links, the new course known as Hogs Head Golf Club has brought a breath of excitement and optimism to this secluded corner of County Kerry. And while an air of mystery has surrounded the development of Hogs Head, everything you need to know about this club is summarized by its slogan: “Built by friends... For friends... For fun.”

Dooks Golf Club. Of all the sublime settings for golf in Ireland, one would be hard pressed to find a more beautiful place to play the game than Dooks Golf Club. A variety of wild flowers, gorse, and heather form a delightful stage against the backdrop of Dingle Bay and the MacGillycuddy’s Reeks Mountains. It’s also home to the Natterjack Toad - a hideous little creature that serves double duty as the club’s logo. The Natterjack notwithstanding, the sheer beauty of Dooks is simply impossible to deny.

Tralee Golf Club. In a land with an abundance of awe inspiring settings for golf, choosing Ireland’s most scenic course is a near impossible task. Yet for many, that course is found on a rugged corner of the Barrow Peninsula at the Tralee Golf Club. Arnold Palmer’s first design in Ireland hugs the coast over the front nine, before turning to the dramatic dunesland for the inward half. Many have compared the links at Tralee to California’s Monterey Peninsula, and it isn’t long into the round before the golfer begins to understand why.

Old Course of Ballybunion Golf Club. In an era which pre-dated golf course architecture as a profession, a relative unknown gifted the golfing world with one of its finest links. Captain Lionel Hewson turned the dramatic landscape he was presented at Ballybunion into a brilliant collection of seaside and inland holes. The graveyard alongside the 1st fairway makes a unique introduction, but it’s the trips to the sea which will leave a lasting impression. None more so than the 11th hole, which Tom Watson once claimed to be the best par-4 in golf.

Lahinch Golf Club. After completing his work at Lahinch, Alister Mackenzie deemed it to be “The finest and most popular golf course that I, or I believe anyone else, ever constructed.” The most memorable holes, however, aren’t the work of the Good Doctor, but rather Old Tom Morris. The Klondyke and Dell are world famous, as are the goats turned weathermen that roam the links. All of which, combined with the glorious setting, makes Lahinch one of the rarefied walks on the Emerald Isle.

Sealing the Deal

Congratulations! You have decided to traverse the Atlantic to faraway lands to experience golf at its finest and life at its best as only H&B can provide.

A few details remain which require your attention before the deal is sealed and your enlistment as a member of the 2019 H&B Expeditionary Forces is complete.

1. Your Deposit: the most traditional of deal-sealers. It's due now. Your second payment and final payment are due on the dates indicated in the enclosed authorization form. You may pay by check payable to "Haversham & Baker" or by credit card using the enclosed authorization form.
2. Insurance is not a requirement but you really shouldn't leave home without it. Take a moment and visit www.TravelGuard.com – the website for Travel Guard International. Since all your payments for the expedition are non-refundable, insurance through a firm such as Travel Guard is a wise way to protect your investment. To receive Travel Guard's most complete level of protection, including coverage for pre-existing conditions, at the most favorable rate you must purchase the insurance within fifteen days of paying your deposit.
3. Member profile. The personal information you provide us is strictly for our internal use. We do not sell, rent or share it with anyone. To create or update your profile, visit this page on our website: <http://www.haversham.com/createupdate-your-profile> fill out the form and click "submit".

What's Next?

We learned early on that the H&B travel experience for most of our members doesn't start when the wheels go up on some runway. Rather, it starts the moment the deposit is paid and the wait begins. Between now and then you likely will make several side trips to a place you haven't been for quite some time – the waiting room of your mind. Fortunately, we've prepared a program to keep you entertained and engaged on this leg of your journey. We call it, Between Now & Then. Rather than go into all the details here, we'll send you an email with the specifics once we've received your deposit.

Between now and then please feel free to contact us any time we can provide additional information or assistance. Helping you have one of your best travel experiences ever is why we're here.
