WREN HOP “GHOST STORY” PINOT NOIR

Sonoma Coast

TASTING NOTES

This Pinot Noir arrives via the Petaluma Gap, an area known for creating natural acidity and an extended growing season. The marine layer creates apparition-like fog and eerie shadows before being ghost-busted by the sun. All important for the flavor development cycle of grape clusters. Aromatically, the wine displays black raspberry compote, and graham cracker, while the palate unveils silky dark red fruit, blood orange, and Santa Rosa plum. Blow off the departed, this Pinot is for the living.

VINEYARD NOTES

Grapes from Roberts Road Vineyard are amongst the most prestigious that the Sangiacomo family cultivate. Wines made from these grapes are Burgundian in style, rich and delicate with a supple mouthfeel. The growing season is long, slow, and even, making for good balance. The vineyard stays in the fog until mid-day and it is always one of the last vineyards to be harvested.

WREN HOP “BLACK SHEEP” PINOT NOIR
Four Barrel Select

Russian River Valley

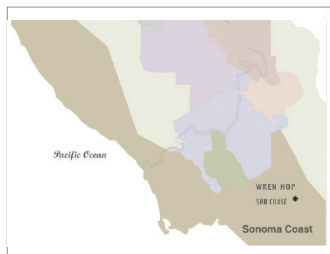

TASTING NOTES

Black Sheep. There’s always one in the family. Was it you? If so, you’ll relate. These barrels just had to be different, showing irreverence and disregard for the pack. In a good way. This outcast is brutish, with a deep, inky garnet color and a nose of mocha, lavender, and sweet tobacco. The palate reveals rich flavors of royal cherry, freshly roasted coffee bean and toasted baking spice. You may not share, do not feel sheepish. HARVEST:

PH: 3.5 | DIJON CLONES

VINEYARD NOTES

Wren Hop Estate vineyard lies in the middle reach of the Russian River Valley. Morning fog gives way to bright sun as its north eastern facing hillside protects the clusters from afternoon heat. The vineyard is farmed with both organic and biodynamic practices. Blocks are into 14th leaf, caned pruned, and hand harvested from Goldridge loam soil.

WREN HOP “SHADOW VOICES” PINOT NOIR

Russian River Valley

TASTING NOTES

Shadow Voices hails from our estate vineyard in the Russian River Valley. We farm this site specifically for power and flavor development while retaining vibrant acidity through strict canopy management. Look for complex notes of cherry balsamic, hibiscus tea, clove and dried herbs. It’s an inky, and multi-layered wine due to the small thick-skinned berries we harvest during crush. As for hearing voices? Probably your neighbors telling you to keep it down.
