Your expedition package would include:

Accommodations & meals:

- Eight (8) nights lodging, single occupancy, as specified:

Three (3) nights in deluxe singles at the Balmoral Hotel. Located at the most prestigious address in Edinburgh at the foot of the castle rock on famed Princes Street, the five-star Balmoral Hotel is a marvelous Victorian structure that combines the noble character of a Scottish baronial home and the classic sophistication of an international hotel.

Three (3) nights in single rooms at Rocpool Reserve. Situated in the heart of Inverness, this award-winning, luxurious boutique hotel, bar and restaurant boasts a convenient setting within a few minutes' walk of the High Street and Inverness Castle. The only 5-star hotel in Inverness.

Two (2) nights in non course view single rooms at the St. Andrews Old Course Hotel & Spa. The hotel is so luxurious as to be featured in Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous. It is situated so close to the Old Course that successful play of the infamous Road Hole requires a drive over a portion of the hotel.

- Full breakfast each morning at your hotel.

Golf Courses:

- Green fees for six (6) rounds of golf for the golfers as follows:

West Links of North Berwick. A day at one of golf's most historic venues, the West Links of North Berwick, is a truly unique experience. In fact, noted architect, Tom Doak, writes in The Confidential Guide that the West Links is one of his best 30 golfing experiences ever. The course lies on the second oldest golfing ground in Scotland, features an ancient shepherd's wall as part of its design and is home to "Redan", the most copied par three ever. Old Tom Morris and his son, Tommy, were playing a match here in 1875 against the Parks when word came that Tommy's wife had taken ill during childbirth. They both died before he could return to St. Andrews. Tommy never recovered from their loss and died on Christmas Day of that year.

Gleneagles – Queens Course. Gleneagles Queens, like the Kings, was designed by James Braid following the First War. Somewhat shorter and less resistant to scoring, the Queens is as lovely as the Kings and a very enjoyable play if time permits.

Castle Stuart Golf Links. Castle Stuart was designed and developed by Mark Parsinen, one of the partners who opened widely acclaimed Kingsbarns in 2000. Parsinen's latest creation is situated on land which was given by Mary Queen of Scots to the Earl of Moray. Its tiered design sloping down to the water offers ocean views from every hole with the water or a local landmark directly in the line of play on 15 of them.

Royal Dornoch Golf Club. Royal Dornoch Golf Club, northernmost of the world's top twenty golf courses. Famed golf course architect, Donald Ross, was born in Dornoch and learned his trade on these links. Many of his favourite design features are found in this wonderfully natural golf course. Little wonder that, among Scottish courses, only St. Andrews and Muirfield are rated higher.

Castle Course at St. Andrews. Following the coastline east of St Andrews, The Castle Course is two miles from the town centre. St Andrews Links Trust is creating a seventh eighteen hole course to join its portfolio of six courses. The designer, David McLay Kidd, creator of Bandon Dunes on the West Coast of America, has created a typical Scottish golf experience. Each hole has a choice of five tees and the course will be playable between about 5300-7200 yards.

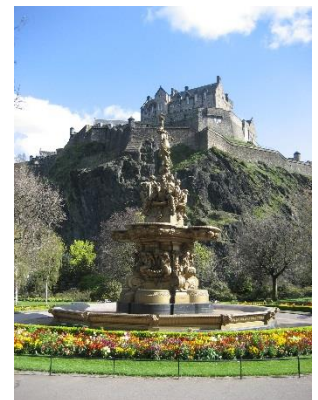

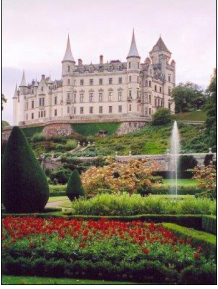

Old Course at St. Andrews. Golf has been played here for half a millennium, and quirky and eccentric as it may be, the nervous thrill of playing away on the first hole, driving over the railroad shed on the diabolical 17th, or putting out of the Valley of Sin on the 18th green (with half the town looking on), is one of golf's great experiences.

Touring Opportunities:

Edinburgh, Scotland's beautiful capital. Tour the Castle, the Royal Mile & Holyrood Palace—the British monarch's official residence in Scotland. There's even time to pop into an historic pub for lunch.

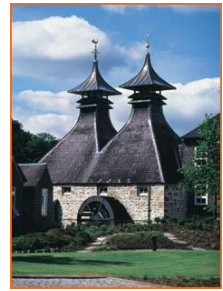

Dunrobin Castle & Gardens, the 189-room ancestral home of the Dukes of Sutherland. This is truly one of Scotland's great houses. High tea here is a must.

Spend a day trying to glimpse Nessie on Loch Ness, exploring Cawdor Castle where Macbeth slew Duncan and visiting Culloden Battlefield where the Scots finally lost to the English, an historic defeat that signaled the beginning of the Highland Clearances.

Distillery Tour. Learn the traditions of distilling and maturing Scotch whisky that have evolved through the centuries, using crafts passed from generation to generation in a continual process of refinement. Today fine malt whisky is produced in distilleries located in the most picturesque of settings, close to the natural ingredients on which their unique flavour depends.

Glamis Castle, a place of legends and fairytales. Family home of the Earls of Strathmore and Kinghorne and a royal residence since 1372. Childhood home of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth The Queen Mother, birthplace of Her Royal Highness The Princess Margaret and legendary setting for Shakespeare's famous play 'Macbeth'.

Tour “auld grey toon”, St. Andrews. Long before it became the Home of Golf, the town was the ecclesiastical centre of Scotland and home the Britain's third oldest university. Tour the castle, cathedral and university.

- Major Comfort Coach. Our custom-designed, climate-controlled luxury coach equipped with soft leather reclining seats with extended leg room, table seating, state of the art video and sound system, oversized luggage space, and air suspension for the smoothest ride possible.

Sealing the Deal

Congratulations! You have decided to traverse the Atlantic to faraway lands to experience golf at its finest and life at its best as only H&B can provide.

A few details remain which require your attention before the deal is sealed and your enlistment as a member of the 2018 H&B Expeditionary Forces is complete.

- 1. Your Deposit: the most traditional of deal-sealers. It's due now. Your second payment and final payment are due on the dates indicated in the enclosed authorization form. You may pay by check payable to "Haversham & Baker" or by credit card using the enclosed authorization form.
- 2. Insurance is not a requirement but you really shouldn't leave home without it. Take a moment and visit www.TravelGuard.com – the website for Travel Guard International. Since all your payments for the expedition are non-refundable, insurance through a firm such as Travel Guard is a wise way to protect your investment. To receive Travel Guard's most complete level of protection, including coverage for pre-existing conditions, at the most favorable rate you must purchase the insurance within fifteen days of paying your deposit.
- 3. Member profile. The personal information you provide us is strictly for our internal use. We do not sell, rent or share it with anyone. To create or update your profile, visit this page on our website: <http://www.haversham.com/createupdate-your-profile> fill out the form and click "submit".

What's Next?

We learned early on that the H&B travel experience for most of our members doesn't start when the wheels go up on some runway. Rather, it starts the moment the deposit is paid and the wait begins. Between now and then you likely will make several side trips to a place you haven't been for quite some time – the waiting room of your mind. Fortunately, we've prepared a program to keep you entertained and engaged on this leg of your journey. We call it, Between Now & Then. Rather than go into all the details here, we'll send you an email with the specifics once we've received your deposit.

Between now and then please feel free to contact us any time we can provide additional information or assistance. Helping you have one of your best travel experiences ever is why we're here.
