2015 DUMOL ESTATE VINEYARD CHARDONNAY

JEB DUNNUCK

97+ POINTS

The 2015 Chardonnay Estate Vineyard is another steely, concentrated, almost austere wine from the estate that's going to demand cellaring. Dried herbs, citrus, white flowers, and salty minerality give way to a medium to full-bodied, concentrated, backward Chardonnay that has awesome potential, yet needs another year of bottle age. — Jeb Dunnuck, June 2018

WINE ADVOCATE

96 POINTS

The 2015 Chardonnay Estate Vineyard delivers incredibly evocative notes of lemon zest, grapefruit, yuzu and lime leaves with touches of baking bread, marzipan, ginger and white blossoms. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is super fresh and minerally with a satiny texture and loads of citrus and savory layers, finishing long and perfumed. — Lisa Perotti-Brown, June 29, 2018

vinous

95 POINTS

The 2015 Chardonnay Estate Vineyard is just as compelling from bottle as it was from tank. As always, the Estate is distinctly structured and savory in its expression, with the fruit pushed into the background. Sage, white pepper, crushed rocks and candied lemon are some of the many nuances that open up in the glass. Bright, saline notes extend the finish in a powerful yet polished Chardonnay that hits all the right notes. — Antonio Galloni, April 2018
